Matarin Capital Selects S&P Dow Jones Indices to Calculate New Custom Indices

NEW YORK, MARCH 27, 2019: S&P Dow Jones Indices (“S&P DJI”), the world’s leading index provider, today announced that Matarin Capital Management, a New York-based investment firm, has selected S&P DJI as a calculation agent for two newly-launched custom indices, the Matarin Global Long-Term Index and the Matarin International (ex-North America) Long-Term Index.

“At Matarin, we use S&P indices broadly as benchmarks in managing investments. We are pleased to have customized the Global Long-Term Index and its International (ex-North America) counterpart with S&P Dow Jones Indices. It was also a natural extension for us to use an S&P Broad Market Index as the starting investable universe from which the Matarin Long-Term Indices select stocks which we expect to offer a Patience Premium to long-term investors, based upon attributes such as fundamentally good businesses, shareholder-friendly leadership, inexpensive valuations, and positive progress towards sustainability,” said Nili Gilbert, Co-Founder and Portfolio Manager at Matarin Capital.

“We are pleased to be chosen as Matarin Capital’s calculation agent for these indices with the S&P Global Broad Market Index serving as the universe from which Matarin’s customization has been applied. We offer a suite of indices for customization and tailored services that represent an array of market segments or investment strategies,” said Michael Mell, Senior Director, Custom Indices at S&P Dow Jones Indices.
